Dear Mr. Dulles:

Your letter of April 18 has come today. Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong are on their way around the world. At the moment I think they are in India. Mr. Armstrong flies from Paris home on May 3; Mrs. Armstrong stays on in Europe a bit to visit her family in Germany. Your letter will be held here for Mr. Armstrong to see when he gets back to the office.

Yours sincerely,

Mary H. Stevens

Dear Ham:

I received the thoughtful telegram which Christa and you sent me on our mutual birthday. I thought of you on that day, but unfortunately I did not know exactly where or how to reach you.

STAT

I am sending this letter to New York as I assume you are now on your way back. I should very much appreciate seeing you and getting your impressions as soon as possible after your return. Possibly you both could come to Washington for a week-end with us.

Sad to relate our house has been sold out from under us to the Friends School which is next door and we will have to be getting out early in June.

Sincerely,

Signed G. W. Dulles

Dear Ham:

Many thanks for your letters of February 1 and February 2 introducing, respectively, [redacted] and [redacted] I look forward to seeing them both in due course.

It was good to see you the other evening. Clover is back and we are now plotting to try to get both of you to Washington.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Hon. Allen W. Dulles,
Central Intelligence Agency,
2430 E Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C.

Dear Allen:

I mentioned to you the other day
that [redacted]
[redacted] is writing an article on [redacted]
which we shall print in the spring issue of Foreign Affairs.

I think you may like to see the enclosed two paragraphs from a letter [redacted] dated January 26, 1955. The reference to [redacted] may be of especial interest to you because of possible differences between his views and those of our Embassy.

As ever,

Ham
